CHAPTER II.

SURRENDER OF FUGITIVE CRIMINALS IN CASE OF INDIAN STATES.

3. Where an arrangement has been made with any State in India with respect to the surrender to such State of any fugitive criminals, the Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, direct that this Act shall apply in the case of such State. Application of Act.

Every such notification shall recite or embody the terms of the arrangement, and shall not remain in force for any longer period than the arrangement.

4. Where this Act applies in the case of any State, every fugitive criminal of that State who is in or is suspected of being in any part of Mysore, shall be liable to be apprehended and surrendered in manner provided by this Act, whether the offence in respect of which the surrender is sought was committed before or after the date of the notification, and whether there is or is not any concurrent jurisdiction in any Court in Mysore over that offence. Apprehension of fugitives.

5. (1) Where a requisition is made to the Government by or on behalf of the Government of any State in India in the case of which this Act applies for the surrender of a fugitive criminal of such State, who is or is suspected of being in Mysore, the Government may, if it thinks fit, issue an order to any Magistrate who would have had jurisdiction to inquire into the offence if it had been an offence committed within the local limits of his jurisdiction directing him to inquire into the case. Requisition for surrender.

(2) The Magistrate so directed shall issue a summons or warrant for the arrest of the fugitive criminal according as the case appears to be one in which a summons or warrant would ordinarily issue. Summons or warrant for arrest.

(3) When such criminal appears or is brought before the Magistrate, the Magistrate shall inquire into the case in the same manner and have the same jurisdiction and powers, as nearly as may be, as if the case were one triable by the Court of Session, and shall take such evidence as may be produced in support of the requisition and on behalf of the fugitive criminal, including any evidence to show that the offence of which such criminal is accused or alleged to have been convicted is an offence of a political character or is not an extradition offence. Inquiry by Magistrate.

Committal

(4) If the Magistrate is of opinion that a prima facie case is made out in support of the requisition, he may commit the fugitive criminal to prison to await the orders of the Government.

Bail.

(5) If the Magistrate is of opinion that a prima facie case is not made out in support of the requisition, or if the case is one which is bailable under the provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure for the time being in force, the Magistrate may release the fugitive criminal on bail.

Magistrate's report.

(6) The Magistrate shall report the result of his inquiry to the Government, and shall forward, together with such report, any written statement which the fugitive criminal may desire to submit for the consideration of the Government.

Reference to High Court if Government thinks necessary.

(7) If the Government is of opinion that such report or written statement raises an important question of law, it may make an order referring such question of law to the High Court and the fugitive criminal shall not be surrendered until such question has been decided.

Warrant for surrender.

(8) If, upon receipt of such report and statement or upon the decision of any such question, the Government is of opinion that the fugitive criminal ought to be surrendered, it may issue a warrant for the custody and removal of such criminal and for his delivery at a place and to a person to be named in the warrant.

Lawfulness of custody and re-taking under warrant for surrender.

(9) It shall be lawful for any person to whom a warrant is directed in pursuance of sub-section (8) to receive, hold in custody and convey the persons mentioned in the warrant, to the place named in the warrant, and if such person escapes out of any custody to which he may be delivered in pursuance of such warrant, he may be re-taken as a person accused of an offence against the law of Mysore may be re-taken upon an escape.

Discharge of fugitive criminal committed to prison after two months.

(10) If such a warrant as is prescribed by sub-section (8) is not issued and executed in the case of any fugitive criminal who has been committed to prison under sub-section (4), within two months after such committal, the High Court may, upon application made to it on behalf of such fugitive criminal and upon proof that reasonable notice of the intention to make such application has been given to the Government, order such criminal to be discharged, unless sufficient cause is shown to the contrary.

6. (1) Where it appears to any Magistrate of the First Class or any Magistrate specially empowered by the Government in this behalf that a person within the local limits of his jurisdiction is a fugitive criminal of a State in India in the case of which this Act applies, he may, if he thinks fit, issue a warrant for the arrest of such person on such information or complaint and on such evidence as would, in his opinion, justify the issue of a warrant if the offence of which he is accused or has been convicted had been committed within the local limits of his jurisdiction.

Power to Magistrate to issue warrant of arrest in certain cases.

(2) The Magistrate shall forthwith report the issue of a warrant under this section to the Government.

Issue of warrant to be reported forthwith.

(3) A person arrested on a warrant issued under this section shall not be detained more than two months unless within that period the Magistrate receives an order made with reference to such person under sub-section (1) of section 5.

Person arrested not to be detained unless order received.

(4) In the case of a person arrested or detained under this section, the provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure for the time being in force relating to bail shall apply in the same manner as if such person were accused of committing in Mysore the offence of which he is accused or has been convicted.

Bail.

7. The Government may at any time stay any proceedings taken under this Chapter and direct any warrant issued under this Chapter to be cancelled and the person for whose arrest such warrant has been issued to be discharged.

Power of Government to discharge any person in custody at any time.

CHAPTER III.

SURRENDER OF FUGITIVE CRIMINALS IN CASE OF BRITISH INDIA.

8. (1) Where an extradition offence has been committed or is supposed to have been committed by a person in British India and such person escapes into or is in Mysore, the Government may, on receipt of a requisition made by or on behalf of any Provincial Government in British India for the surrender of the said person, direct the issue of a warrant addressed to the District Magistrate of any district in which such person is believed to be, for his arrest and delivery at a place and to a person.

Issue of warrant by Government in certain cases.

or authority indicated in the warrant, and such Magistrate shall act in pursuance of such warrant and may give directions accordingly.

Execution of such warrant.

(2) A warrant issued as mentioned in sub-section (1) shall be executed in the manner provided by the law for the time being in force with reference to the execution of warrants, and the accused person, when arrested, shall be produced before the District Magistrate who shall record any statement made by him; such accused person shall then, unless released in accordance with the provisions of the Act, be forwarded to the place and delivered to the person or authority indicated in the warrant:

Proclamation and attachment in case of persons absconding.

(3) The provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure for the time being in force in relation to proclamation and attachment in the case of persons absconding shall, with any necessary modifications, apply where any warrant has been received by a District Magistrate under this section as if the warrant had been issued by himself.

Release on giving security.

9. (1) Where an endorsement has been made on any such warrant that the person for whose arrest it is issued may be released on executing a bond with sufficient sureties for his attendance before a person or authority indicated in this behalf in the warrant at a specified time and place, the Magistrate to whom the warrant is addressed shall on such security being given, release such person from custody.

Magistrate to retain bond.

(2) When security is taken under this section, the Magistrate shall certify the fact to the Government and shall retain the bond.

Re-arrest in case of default.

(3) If the person bound by any such bond does not appear at the time and place specified, the Magistrate may, on being satisfied as to his default, issue a warrant directing that he be re-arrested and handed over to any person authorised by the Government to take him into custody.

Deposit in lieu of bond and forfeiture of bonds.

(4) In the case of any bond executed under this section, the Magistrate may exercise the powers conferred by the Code of Criminal Procedure for the time being in force in relation to taking a deposit in lieu of the execution of a bond and with respect to the forfeiture of bonds and the discharge of sureties.

10. Where a requisition is made to the Government by or on behalf of any Provincial Government in British India for the surrender of any person accused of having committed in British India an offence other than an extradition offence, such requisition shall (except in so far as it relates to the taking of evidence to show that the offence is of a political character or is not an extradition offence) be dealt with so far as may be in accordance with the procedure prescribed by section 5.

Requisition for surrender.

11. (1) If it appears to any Magistrate of the First Class or any Magistrate empowered by the Government in this behalf that a person within the local limits of his jurisdiction is accused or suspected of having committed an offence in British India and that such person may lawfully be surrendered or that warrant may be issued for his arrest under section 8, the Magistrate may, if he thinks fit, issue a warrant for the arrest of such person on such information or complaint and on such evidence as would, in his opinion, justify the issue of a warrant if the offence had been committed within the local limits of his jurisdiction.

Power to Magistrates to issue warrants of arrest in certain cases.

(2) The Magistrate shall forthwith report to the Government through the District Magistrate the issue of a warrant under this section.

Issue of warrant to be reported forthwith.

(3) A person arrested on a warrant issued under this section shall not, without the special sanction of the Government, be detained more than two months, unless within such period, the Magistrate receives an order made with reference to such person in accordance with the procedure prescribed by section 10, or a warrant for the arrest of such person is issued under section 8.

Limit of time of detention of person arrested.

(4) In the case of a person arrested or detained under this section, the provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure for the time being in force relating to bail shall apply in the same manner as if such person were accused of committing in Mysore the offence with which he is charged.

Bail.

12. (1) A person accused of an offence committed in Mysore, not being the offence for which his surrender is asked or undergoing sentence under any conviction in Mysore shall not be surrendered except on the condition that such person be re-surrendered to the Government on the termination of his trial for the offence for which his surrender has been asked :

Surrender of person accused of, or undergoing sentence for offence in Mysore.

Provided that no such condition shall be deemed to prevent or postpone the execution of a sentence of death lawfully passed.

Suspension of sentence on surrender.

(2) On the surrender of a person undergoing sentence under a conviction in Mysore, his sentence shall be deemed to be suspended until the date of his re-surrender, when it shall revive and have effect for the portion thereof which was unexpired at the time of his surrender.

Application of Chapter to convicted persons.

13. The provisions of this Chapter with reference to accused persons shall, with any necessary modifications, apply to the case of a person who, having been convicted of an offence in British India, has escaped into or is in Mysore before his sentence has expired.

Abetment and attempt.

14. Every person who is accused or convicted of abetting or attempting to commit any offence shall be deemed, for the purposes of this Chapter, to be accused or convicted of having committed such offence, and shall be liable to be arrested and surrendered accordingly.

Lawfulness of custody and re-taking under warrant issued under Chapter.

15. It shall be lawful for any person to whom a warrant is directed in pursuance of the provisions of this Chapter to receive, hold in custody and convey to the place named in the warrant the person mentioned in the warrant; and, if such person escapes out of any custody to which he may be delivered in pursuance of such warrant he may be re-taken as a person accused of an offence against the law of Mysore, may be re-taken upon an escape.

Power of Government to stay proceedings and discharge person in custody.

16. The Government may, by order, stay any proceedings taken under this Chapter, and may direct any warrant issued under this Chapter to be cancelled, and the person for whose arrest such warrant has been issued to be discharged.

Application of Chapter to offences committed before its commencement.

17. The provisions of this Chapter shall apply to an offence or to an extradition offence, as the case may be, committed before the passing of this Act, and to an offence in respect of which a Court of Mysore has concurrent jurisdiction.

CHAPTER IV.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Receipt in evidence of exhibits, depositions and other documents.

18. In any proceedings under this Act, exhibits and depositions (whether received or taken in the presence of the person against whom they are used or not) and copies thereof, and official certificates of facts and judicial documents stating facts, may, if authenticated in the prescribed manner, be received as evidence.

19. The testimony of any witness may be obtained in relation to any criminal matter pending in any State in India in like manner as it may be obtained in any civil matter under the provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure for the time being in force with respect to commissions, and the provisions of that Code relating thereto shall be construed as if the term "suit" included criminal proceeding.

Evidence by commission.

20. (1) The Government may make rules to carry out the purpose of this Act.

Power to make rules.

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may provide for—

(a) the removal of prisoners accused or in custody under this Act, and their control and maintenance until such time as they are handed over to the persons named in the warrant as entitled to receive them;

(b) the seizure and disposition of any property which is the subject of, or required for proof of, any alleged offence to which this Act applies;

(c) the pursuit and arrest in Mysore, by officers of the Government or other persons authorised in this behalf, of persons accused of offences committed elsewhere;

(d) the manner of authenticating documents;

(e) prescribing the authorities of any Provincial Government in British India or a State in India whose requisition may be acted upon under this Act; and

(f) the procedure and practice to be observed in extradition proceedings.

(3) Rules made under this section shall be published in the Official Gazette and shall thereupon have effect as if enacted by this Act.

21. Notwithstanding anything in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1904, any person arrested without an order from a Magistrate and without a warrant, in pursuance of the provisions of section 54, clause seventhly, of the said Code, may, under the orders of a Magistrate within the local limits of whose jurisdiction such arrest was made be detained in the same manner and subject to the same restrictions as a person arrested on a warrant issued by such Magistrate under section 11.

Detention of persons arrested.

Repeal.

22. (1) On and from the date on which this Act comes into force, the Chief Commissioner's Notification No. 111, dated 23rd July 1878, and Government Notification No. J. 219—Legis. 14-04-14, dated the 20th July 1907 shall be deemed to be repealed.

(2) All orders made and acts done under any of the notifications hereby repealed in respect of requisitions received before coming into force of this Act shall have the same force and effect as if they had been made or done under this Act.

Prerogative of His Highness the Maharaja to direct extradition.

23. Nothing contained in this Act shall affect or be deemed to have affected the prerogative of His Highness the Maharaja to direct, independently of this Act, the extradition and surrender of any criminal found in Mysore.

Explanation.—In this section "criminal" includes a person accused or convicted in British India of an act which, whether or not constituting an offence if done in Mysore, constitutes an offence if done in British India.
